Call to Order		1:26 PM
John Garcia's opening remarks Introductions	Welcome, Mission statement review
Survey review	Review the survey results in order to issue a recommendation to the board.	Clean up and organize the recommendations for a submittal to the board.
	Marketing Recommendations	Promote the networking aspect of EGSA including the Linked-In online groups, Conference attendance and other EGSA networking in Powerline Magazine. With an emphasis on the Linked-in groups
	Powerline Recommendations	Continue to seek names to add to the Powerline subscriptions.  Consider an e-mail version of the magazine or providing a link sent to an e-mail database in order access the most current magazine online.  Use powerline to interview membership that offer storys and insight as to why members attend the EGSA shows and what they get out of the events.
	Question #6	Refer information over to the C&C committee for them to address.
	#8	Look into a broader mentoring program.

		Due to the success of this first timers meeting continue with the committee chair introductions at the first timers meeting. The committee chair people can help with the mentoring. Also continue the second timers coming to the first timer meeting to explain why they are coming back to the show. Recapture the canadian survey questions
	E-version of Powerline	Liz is going to do a mass e-mail about the e-version of the Powerline asking for the magazine to be forwarded to engineers and other industry professionals
